

A Few Grasses to Grace your Garden
Spring Garden Lecture with
Steve Kelley and Arla Carmichiel

So often folks have a hard time visualizing and utilizing grasses in their gardens. Grasses can seem more at home in nature-in the fields and along roadsides every where around. This talk will broaden your outlook on grasses and grass-like plants both native and non-native. Discover that grasses really have a lot to offer the home landscape. Come away with ideas for utilizing the texture and form of grasses to add interest, movement, and excitement to your home landscape.

Tuesday, April 17 @ 7 p.m.
